4-H Talent Show to be held!

The 4-H Talent Show will be held on Thursday, May 3 @ 6:30 p.m. at Cooperative Extension in the Ed Emory Auditorium.

There will be four categories: Best Vocal, Dance, Instrumental, and Other.

If you are interested in participating, please call the 4-H office to sign up. The top two acts will perform at District Activity Day on June 22 in Lenoir County.

4-H Foods Show & Nutrition Contest Winners Announced!

4-H’ers displayed items and competed in 5 categories; milk and dairy products, meats, vegetables, fruits, and breads and grains – groups of ChooseMyPlate.gov, a daily plan for nutrition.

Winning first place awards in the junior division (ages 9-13) were Lauren Hardin, Darien Murphy, Vance King, Jr., and Timothy Edwards Jr.

Second place winners were Davis Rhodes and Sadejah Murphy. Third place winner was Jalen Thaxton.

Senior division (ages 14-19) first place winners were Aaron Miller and Monique Brewington.

Cloverbud participants were Lekea Boney and Wyatt Kirk.

District & State Officer Applications Due Soon

District and state officer applications are due in the Duplin County 4-H office by Friday, May 25. Forms have to be mailed to the District Agent Advisor and Shannon McCollum in the State 4-H office.

If you are interested in running for an office, please call the 4-H office.

Reminders

May 3 - Duplin County 4-H Talent Show @ 6:30 p.m.; Cooperative Extension Auditorium

June 11-13; 4-H Citizenship North Carolina Focus; Raleigh

June 22 - 4-H District Activity Day; Lenoir Community College

June - August; 4-H Summer Opportunities; See enclosures!

July 9-11; NC 4-H Electric Congress; UNC-Wilmington

July 16 - 28; NC 4-H Congress; Raleigh

July 29 - August 3; NC 4-H Camp; Betsy-Jeff Penn

HAVE A GREAT SUMMER!!!

Bridget Huffman
Extension Agent
4-H Youth Development